CBCP closely monitoring VP Sara's impeachment trial

MANILA – The Catholic Bishops' Conference of the Philippines (CBCP) is closely monitoring the impeachment trial of Vice President Sara Duterte at the Senate, CBCP - Episcopal Commission on Interreligious Dialogue Bishop Jose Colin Bagaforo said Friday.

"We are closely monitoring the impeachment trial. Our position remains unchanged: this impeachment trial is important," he said in a press conference after the 132nd CBCP Plenary Assembly held in Sinacaban, Misamis Occidental.

The Catholic prelate

Bishop Jose Colin Bagaforo appealed to those involved in the trial to allow the process to take its course.

"Let the impeachment process take its course. Let the rule of law render its own verdict," he added.

Bagaforo noted that the CBCP is not for or against Duterte but supports the law and the Constitution.

"This is not a condemnation of the Vice President. We are not taking a stand for or against the Vice President. What we are upholding is the Constitution and the rule of law," the Kidapawan bishop said.

"The Church advocates for nothing other than justice. This also serves as a reminder to public officials to be accountable." More than 80 bishops and archbishops participated in the plenary meeting, which was held from July 8 to 10. source: (PNA)

MANILA – The Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) is strengthening the implementation of Project SAFE against Online Sexual Abuse and Exploitation of Children (OSAEC) as it expands the program to cover more communities this year.

Findings from a recent study of the International Justice Mission (IJM) showed that 41 percent of victim-survivors of OSAEC were abused by their own parents and 42 percent by their siblings and other relatives, indicating the urgency of strengthening child protection mechanisms.

The IJM has likewise identified poverty, widespread internet access, and the proliferation of Child Sexual Abuse or Exploitation Materials (CSAEM) as among the factors contributing to the Philippines' vulnerability to these crimes.

In a statement Thursday, DSWD spokesperson Assistant Secretary Irene Dumlao said the department continues to strengthen both the preventive and recovery services to ensure that children are protected from exploitation and other forms of abuse, and for survivors to receive long-term support.

"Hindi po nagtatapos ang responsibilidad ng pamahalaan sa pagsasagip sa mga batang biktima ng online sexual abuse at exploitation. Sa pamamagitan ng Project SAFE, tinitiyak po ng ahen-sya na mabibigyan sila ng tuloy-tuloy na psychosocial

Kabataan, dapat hubugin sa tamang paraan

"Naniniwala tayo na mag pahanggang ngayon, ang mga kabataan pa rin ang pag-asa ng bayan. Kaya marapat lamang na sila ay ating unawaain, tulungan at hubugin sa kabutihan sa tamang paraan."

Kung maaalala pa ang pahayag na iyan ay nagmula kay Congressman Lani Mercado Revilla noong nakaraang taon.

At dahil sa mga nagaganap na kasalukuyan na mga kabataan ang nauugnay, muli iyong nauangkat at naging isang malaking katanungan.

Araw-araw, walang tigil ang mga balita ukol sa mga krimen na pawang kabataan ang itinuturing may kagagawan, at madalas din, kabataan ang biktima.

BAKIT? Ano ang dahilan? Isang senior citizen ang nagtanong, "Hindi kaya DROGA ang dahilan? Baka naka-droga ang mga batang kriminal at ang mga mabibiktima, kadalasan ay pinapatay, ay tumatangi naman sa DROGA?"

Parang may puntos naman si Mam. Pero sana, gawin ng mga magulang kung ano ang TAMA sa pagpapalaki ng kanilang mga anak.

"Hubugin ang mga bata at kabataan sa tamang paraan, upang habang lumalaki sila ay maging mabuting tao at mabuting miyembro ng lipunan."

Hindi dahilan ng mga magulang ang kanilang kaabalahan sa paghahanap-buhay para may pantustos sa pangangailangan ng mga anak, para pabayaang ang pangangailangan ay pagdisiplina sa kanila. MALI IYAN.

"Kailanman at Hindi tayo titgil sa pagtulong Lalo na sa ating mga kabataan. Magtutulongan tayo,ang pamahalaan ay palaging para sa bayan ?maglilingkod sa lahat. At huwag nating kalilimutan, ilagay sa sentro ng ating buhay ang Dios upang tayo ay magtagumpay," muling paalala ng nasabing mataas na opisyal ng alawigan tic interventions and educational assistance, while 619 community members have participated in advocacy activities promoting child protection and online safety.

During the coordination meeting with the IJM last June 30, the DSWD's Social Technology Bureau (STB) presented the program's accomplishments and strategic direction for 2026.

These include the Framework for Family Engagement (FFE), which serves as a core component of the rehabilitation process for survivors and their families; the successful completion of the Training of Trainers (ToT) last June 22 to 26; and preparations for the Training on Assessment of Survivors' Outcomes scheduled for July 14 and 15.

The STB also outlined Project SAFE against OSAEC's four major components to other partner agencies, including the enhanced advocacy campaigns; strengthened reporting systems and networks of care; healing services that include FFE sessions and long-term educational assistance; and post-recovery interventions such as alternative child care, supervised independent living, and survivor advocacy through the Philippine Survivor Network.

The partners also expressed their commitment to support the expansion of Project SAFE against OSAEC in the second semester of 2026 in Taguig City and Quezon City in the National Capital Region (NCR); Calamba City, Laguna and Dasmariñas City, Cavite in Region 4-A (Calabarzon); Cebu City and Lapu-Lapu City in Region 7; and Iligan City, Lanao del Norte and Cagayan de Oro City, Misamis Oriental in Region 10.

Aside from the program expansion, the meeting also produced several key commitments, including the continued coaching and field mentoring of the initial 31 FFE trainers, the sustained use of the Pathwright E-Library for technical support, and stronger coordination with local government units (LGUs) to speed up survivor assessment and reintegration.

The DSWD is also strengthening its information campaign, reporting mechanisms, and coordination with LGUs and other partners to prevent new cases of OSAEC.

“The continued expansion of Project SAFE against OSAEC reflects President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr.’s directive to strengthen child protection systems and ensure that every Filipino child grows up in a safe and nurturing environment,” Dumlaog said.source: (PNA)
