MANILA – Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) Secretary Jonvic Remulla has recommended restoring the age eligibility for the Sangguniang Kabataan (SK) to 15 to 19 years old, saying youth officials should remain closely connected to the sector they are elected to represent.

Remulla said the current age range allows individuals who may already be working or raising families to continue serving in a council intended to represent younger Filipinos.

“My recommendation is to bring it back to 15 to 19 years old, so that they would still be staying in the community. Because at 28 or 29 [years old], nag-asawa na po ‘yan, nagpamilya na, o nagtatrabaho na (They are already married, have a family, or are working). I don’t think they are representative anymore of their constituents,” he said during the Senate Committee on Finance deliberations on the DILG’s proposed 2027 budget on Thursday, according to a news release on Friday.

Remulla also pointed to the overlap between the current SK age eligibility and the minimum age requirements for other elective local positions, despite the significant difference in their respective roles.

“The minimum age for running for governor is 23, and to run for SK is between 18 and 29. You see the variance of what their responsibilities are,” he said.

The DILG chief likewise called for a review of the fiscal autonomy granted to SK officials, citing concerns over their capacity and preparedness to independently manage public funds.

“I think that the fiscal responsibility of the SK is not fully formed yet, and they are subject to the manipulation of so many factors,” he underscored.

The issue of accountability in the management of SK funds has also surfaced in recent cases. Earlier this year, two SK

YIPOA, HATID-PAGKAKATAON SA KABATAAN PARA SA ORGANIKONG PAGSASAKA

Binibigyang-lakas ng DA-ATI CALABARZON ang kabataan bilang katuwang sa pagsusulong ng isang mas makabago at napapanatiling sektor ng agrikultura sa pamamagitan ng Youth Internship Program on Organic Agriculture (YIPOA) Information Caravan.

Aktibong nakilahok sa serye ng caravan ang mga miyembro ng 4-H Clubs, Out-of-School Youth (OSY), at mga batang magsasaka mula sa Padre Burgos at Pagbilao sa Quezon; Sto. Tomas City sa Batangas; General Emilio Aguinaldo at Trece Martires City sa Cavite; Victoria sa Laguna; at Pililla at Tanay sa Rizal. Sa mga isinagawang aktibidad, nabigyan ang mga kabataan ng pagkakataong higit na maunawaan ang programa at ang mga oportunidad na iniaalok nito para sa kanilang pag-unlad sa larangan ng agrikultura.

Nagpaabot naman ng pagbati at suporta si DA-ATI CALABARZON Center Director Dr. Rolando V. Maningas, RAgr., sa mga kabataang lumahok sa information caravan. Binigyang-diin niya ang mahalagang papel ng kabataan sa pagpapatuloy at pagpapalakas ng sektor ng agrikultura, gayundin ang oportunidad na hatid ng YIPOA upang mahubog ang kanilang kaalaman, kasanayan, at kakayahan bilang mga susunod na katuwang sa pagpapaunlad ng agrikultura.

Ang YIPOA ay isang highly specialized internship program na idinisenyo upang sanayin at ihanda ang mga kabataan sa organikong pagsasaka at agriprenurship. Sa pamamagitan ng hands-on na pagsasanay at aktuwal na pagkakalantad sa mga pamamaraan at konsepto ng organic agriculture, nilalayan ng programa na mahubog ang mga kabataang may kakayahang magpatayo at magpatakbo ng mga gawaing pang-agrikultura, habang nag-aambag sa pagsusulong ng mas makabago at napapanatiling agrikultura.

Philhealth to Join Handog ng Pangulo, Brings Yakap to Schools and Workplaces Nationwide on September 14

President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. continues to push for more accessible primary health care for Filipinos nationwide through Handog ng Pangulo (HNP). As part of the celebration, DOH and PhilHealth will bring YAKAP and other health services to schools and workplaces across the country on September 14, 2026.

With the participation of 257 Yakap Clinics with partner GAMOT Providers, PhilHealth will offer the following services at all HNP sites: member services, YAKAP selection and empanment, consultation, claiming of free medicines through GAMOT, and PSA registration support.

“We want to bring YAKAP to where Filipinos already are. Pinagtutulungan namin ng DOH, under UNA, yung holistic approach to health in schools, workplaces, and communities na meron kang health promotion interventions at may primary care services na available,” said PhilHealth Acting President and CEO Dr. Beverly Ho.

“On this day, we want to show the member experience that we are working toward. Dapat ganito kadali mag-access ng primary care services para sa lahat ng Pilipino.” For further details on YAKAP na Handog ng Pangulo venues, members may call PhilHealth’s 24/7 touch points at (02) 8662-2588 or visit PhilHealth Facebook Page @ PhilHealthOfficial.

Senator's Corner

Bam Aquino: Fight corruption, extortion, and bribery in gov't that burden small businesses

Senator Bam Aquino on Friday(September 11, 2026) called for stronger action against corruption, bribery, and extortion in government agencies to ease the burden on micro, small, and medium enterprises (MSMEs), saying the government should help businesses grow, rather than make it harder for them to succeed.

During the Senate Committee on Trade, Commerce, and Entrepreneurship hearing on “Kontra Pahirap sa MSMEs,” which he chairs, Aquino said extortion, corruption, and bribery experienced by small businesses add to their cost of doing business and, in some cases, threaten their survival.

“Nais nating tukuyin ang pinakamagastos, pinakamabigat, at mahihirap na requirement at regulasyon na hinaharap ng mga MSMEs. Mula sa pagsisimula ng negosyo, sa kanilang araw-araw na operasyon, hanggang sa kanilang paglago,” Aquino said.

“Kasama na po rito ang hinaharap ng mga MSME na pangongotog at korapsyon na nakikita nila na pumapatay sa kanilang mga negosyo. Dapat alisin na natin ang korapsyon at hulihin ang mga empleyado na humihingi ng lagay para mapabilis ang proseso,” he added.

The Senator particularly mentioned the Bureau of Fire Protection (BFP), Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR), and Food and Drug Administration (FDA) as among the government agencies most frequently cited in complaints from MSMEs.

“Iyong mga ahensya po na nandito, kayo po iyong napili namin, BIR, BFP, FDA, because to be frank, marami po sa mga complaints ng mga entrepreneur, sa inyo po rin tinutukoy,” Aquino said.

Beyond corruption, Aquino cited the costly, burdensome, and repetitive government requirements faced by small businesses—from starting a business and securing permits to day-to-day operations and expansion.

“Sa halip na tulungan silang lumago, marami sa ating maliliit na negosyo ang nauubusan ng oras at puhunan sa pagsunod sa magastos, paulit-ulit, at kung minsan ay hindi angkop na mga requirement ng gobyerno,” he said, noting that nearly 99 percent of registered businesses in the country are MSMEs, with almost two out of every three jobs linked to the sector.

“Ito ang mga pahirap sa MSMEs—mga proseso at requirement na sa halip na gumabay at magbigay-proteksyon ay nagiging hadlang sa mga negosyanteng nais lamang kumita nang marangal at sumunod sa batas,” he added.

Aquino pointed out that the time and money spent by small entrepreneurs complying with government requirements can have a much greater impact on their businesses than on larger companies.

“Pero para sa isang MSME, bawat araw na nauubos sa pila ay isang araw na hindi siya nakapagbukas ng tindahan. Bawat dagdag na bayarin ay maaaring bawas sa puhunan, pangsweldo ng empleyado, o panggastos sa kanilang pamilya,” he stressed.

Aquino also urged the BIR, BFP, and FDA to simplify their regulatory requirements while maintaining necessary standards for public safety, health, taxation, and consumer protection.

He emphasized the need for a risk-based approach to regulation, saying requirements should take into account the size of the business, the complexity of its operations, risk profile, and actual capacity to comply.

He likewise stressed that regulatory reforms should ultimately help MSMEs remain open, expand their businesses, create more jobs, and move up the business ladder—from micro to small, small to medium, and eventually to large enterprises.

“Tulungan nating manatiling bukas ang mga maliliit na negosyo. Tulungan ho natin silang lumago, lumikha ng mas maraming trabaho, at umangat mula micro patungong small, small patungong medium, medium patungong large hanggang po maabot ang mga pangarap po nila,” he said.

In his return as chairperson of the Senate Committee on Trade, Commerce, and Entrepreneurship, Aquino crafted a five-point agenda focused on expanding support for MSMEs, addressing regulatory burdens, promoting high-growth industries, establishing a farmer and MSME support and voucher program, and developing the country’s creative economy.

A known ally of MSMEs and entrepreneurs, Aquino pushed for the passage of Republic Act No. 10644, or the Go Negosyo Act, in 2014, serving as its principal sponsor and principal author during his first stint as chairperson of the trade panel in the 16th Congress.

The law provides MSMEs with greater access to markets and financing, offers training and capacity-building programs, and simplifies the business registration process for entrepreneurs starting or expanding their ventures.

The country now has 1,344 Negosyo Centers nationwide, covering about 78 percent of all local government units. From 2022 through the first half of 2026, these centers have served millions of MSMEs.

DOST Cavite joins “Lingkod Bayani On the Go: Government Express 2026” in Baco

The Department of Science and Technology (DOST) Cavite participated in the “Lingkod Bayani On the Go: Government Express 2026” held on September 8, 2026, at the Strike Gymnasium in Baco

City, Cavite, as part of the celebration of the Philippine Civil Service Anniversary. Led by the Civil Service Commission (CSC) Region IV, in partnership with the City Government of Baco or, the activity brought together various government agencies to provide essential frontline services, employment facilitation, and civil service programs in a single convenient venue.

The event aimed to make government services more accessible to job seekers, career aspirants, and the general public by providing multiple services in a single location, eliminating the need for citizens to visit different government offices.

DOST Cavite joined other participating government agencies in bringing its programs and services closer to the people of Baco or, reflecting the strong public interest in accessible government services and employment opportunities.

The activity highlighted the commitment of government agencies to responsive, accessible, and citizen-centered public service, in line with the Philippine Civil Service Anniversary.

DTI CAVITE, TAMPOK ANG 32 MSMEs SA GRAND PARENTS DAY TRADE FAIR

CAVITE — Tampok ang mga produktong gawa ng mga lokal na negosyante sa Grandparents Day Trade Fair na isinasagawa ng Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) Cavite katuwang ang Waltermart Head Office.

Isinasagawa ang tatlong-araw na trade fair mula Setyembre 11 hanggang 13, 2026, na sabay-sabay na ginaganap sa pitong sangay ng Waltermart sa lalawigan.

Kabilang sa mga lokasyon ang Waltermart branches sa Dasmariñas City, Baco or, handog o regalo para sa pagdiriwang ng Grandparents’ Day.

Layunin ng trade fair na mabigyan ng pagkakataon ang mga lokal na MSME na maipakilala at maitaguyod ang kanilang mga produkto, mapalawak ang kanilang market reach, at direktang makauugnayan ang mga mamimili.

Hinihikayat naman ang mga Caviteño na suportahan ang mga kalahok na

MSME sa pamamagitan ng pagbisita sa pinakamalapit na Waltermart branch at pagtangkik sa iba’t ibang produktong proudly Caviteño.

Bukod sa pagdiriwang ng Grandparents’ Day, nagsisilbi rin ang aktibidad bilang dagdag na pagkakataon para sa mga lokal na negosyante na mapalago ang kanilang negosyo at mas mapalawak ang merkado ng mga produktong gawa sa Cavite.

SSS LoanLite provides qualified members faster access to short-term credit QUEZON CITY (PIA) — Qualified Social Security System (SSS) members can now apply for the SSS Micro Loan Program, or SSS LoanLite, through the mobile application of UnionDigital Bank (UD).

SSS said UD is the first of its four participating financial institutions (PFIs) to make the LoanLite facility available through a digital platform, providing members with a more convenient and secure way to access short-term financial assistance.

“After months of preparation, SSS LoanLite is finally here. Qualified members can now apply through the UnionDigital Bank mobile application, making access to short-term financial assistance more convenient and secure,” SSS President and Chief Executive Officer Robert Joseph M. de Claro said.

SSS LoanLite is designed to provide qualified members with accessible and affordable short-term credit while encouraging the use of formal financial services as an alternative to informal and potentially predatory lending.

It is the first SSS loan facility for employed members that allows qualified private-sector employees to apply through a participating financial institution's mobile application without securing the employer certification required for conventional SSS short-term loans.

Under the program, qualified members may borrow from ₱1,000 to ₱20,000, depending on the average of their 12 latest Monthly Salary Credits. Repayment periods are 15, 30, 60, or 90 days, with an interest rate of 8 percent per annum, or about 0.67 percent per month.

The application and related transactions are completed through the UD mobile application. Eligible applications may be processed and approved within minutes, subject to SSS and PFI requirements, verification, and system processing.

To qualify, members must meet the requirements under SSS Circular No. 2026-005, including having at least 36 total contributions, with at least six posted monthly contributions within the 12-month period immediately preceding the application.

Applicants must also meet the applicable requirements on age, existing SSS loans, benefit claims, account status, and other program conditions.

SSS reminded members to review SSS Circular No. 2026-005 for the complete eligibility requirements, loan terms, and conditions.

Loan repayments will generally be collected through an automatic debit arrangement from the account where the loan proceeds were credited. Members are encouraged to repay on time to maintain good standing and eligibility for future LoanLite availment, subject to applicable requirements.

De Claro said the program forms part of SSS' efforts to expand access to formal financial services and protect members from predatory lending.

“Through our partnership with UD, we are supporting faster, safer, and more convenient access to credit for qualified members,” he said.

SSS advised members to use only the official UnionDigital Bank mobile application when applying for LoanLite and to avoid individuals or third parties offering to process loan applications.

Members are also encouraged to carefully review the loan disclosure statement, including applicable interest, fees, repayment schedule, and other terms before accepting the loan.

SSS said it is working with its other PFIs to make LoanLite available through their respective digital platforms, giving more qualified members access to formal short-term credit. (SSS / AVS / PIA-NCR)

With its savings, CvSU will instead allocate its resources to students, facilities, and other essential services. (PB-PIA CALABARZON, with reports from Cavite State University)

MMDA NATURE PARK SA CARMONA, CAVITE BINUKSAN SA PUBLIKO

Pinangunahan ni Executive Secretary Ralph Recto ang inagurasyon ng Metro Manila Development Authority (MMDA) Nature Park sa lungsod ng Carmona nitong Setyembre 11.

Kasama sina Cavite Fifth District Representative Roy Loyola, at MMDA Chair Atty. Romando Artes, binuksan sa publiko ang Nature Park na kinonvert mula sa isang dating dumpsite.

Ayon kay Recto, patunay ito sa mga posibleng maabot ng mga Pilipino sa pamamagitan ng pagkakaisa at pagtutulungan sa ilalim Bagong Pili-pinas ng administrasyon ni Pangulong Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr.

He noted that some teachers who will assist voters encountered some issues while testing the ACMs, but these were resolved.

“Our teachers have seen some issues, such as wrong placement of this and that. That is better. This is the purpose of our final testing and sealing so that on Monday, they know what they have to do, as they have already experienced and therefore, they will not have any difficulty on Monday,” he said.

He also urged the people in the region to remain alert – before, during, and after the polls.

“Your Commission on Elections is ready, especially regarding the peace and order situation... However, I would like to tell our fellow citizens in the Bangsamoro that vigilance should not end on Monday. We must remain watchful even after the election, because sometimes, especially those who are unsuccessful do not accept their defeat. The Comelec is prepared for such events or incidents,” Garcia said.

A total of 80 parliamentary seats will be contested in the BARMM elections.

Garcia called on the candidates to conduct their “meeting de avance” peacefully.

“Let us conduct the final campaign rally peacefully. Such gathering is part of the process,” he said.

chairpersons in Makati City were suspended after the Sangguniang Panlungsod found them guilty of misconduct, including separate cases involving an alleged demand for a 20-percent kickback from a supplier and the submission of documents bearing forged signatures.

Remulla stressed that reforms to the SK system should strengthen, rather than diminish, youth participation in governance by ensuring that young leaders genuinely represent their sector and are supported by appropriate safeguards in the management of public funds.

Early childhood care, ready-to-eat meals to fight child malnutrition

Meanwhile, the DILG will move to fast-track the implementation of early childhood care and development (ECCD) programs at the local level, including a proposed feeding program aimed at addressing malnutrition and stunting among young children.

Remulla said the department intends to mobilize local government units to strengthen the delivery of ECCD services, particularly nutrition interventions for children five years old and below.

“A large part of [our effort] is the feeding program that we will have for the children. We will get meals ready to eat, prepacked, and just heated in the respective barangays,”

Cardinal Tagle...pl

sense. Please, no more violence that will create wounded young people,” Tagle said during his father's funeral Mass at Imus Cathedral in Cavite, south of Manila.

Manuel “Tatay Maning” Tagle Sr. was 14 when an air raid struck his neighborhood during the war, killing his father and injuring him. He survived with shrapnel lodged in his body for the rest of his life.

“He bore in his body, in his mind, in his memory, the horrors of war,” Tagle said in his homily.

The pro-prefect of the Vatican's Dicastery for Evangelization said his father's story showed that war wounds extend far beyond the battlefield, affecting people, families and entire communities for generations.

Tagle said his father also survived because people around him offered support during the war, a lesson he connected to the importance of human relationships.

“Life is in communion. Life is in relationship with God, with brothers and sisters, with the whole of society, with the whole of creation. That's where we find life,” he said.

Manuel Sr. died Sept. 6 at 96, days after he and his wife, Milagros, marked their 70th wedding anniversary on Aug. 26.

Tagle recalled his father's quiet service to others, including bringing Holy Communion to the sick as a Eucharistic minister and helping young people pursue education, including blind students.

He said those acts showed a life centered on service and connection, themes that also shaped his reflection on death and Christian hope.

“Others may forget you, but with God remembering you, time is healed by eternal memory,” Tagle said.

Twelve bishops, including Cardinal Pablo Virgilio David of Kalookan and papal nuncio Archbishop Charles Brown concelebrated the funeral Mass with more than 100 priests.

COMELEC 100% READY FOR BARMM POLLS

COMELEC Chairman George M. Garcia

MANILA – The Commission on Elections (Comelec) said Saturday it is all set to conduct the first-ever Bangsamoro Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao (BARMM) Parliamentary Elections (BPE) on Sept. 14.

“We are 100 percent ready for the election on Monday,” he said in an interview on the sidelines of the final testing and sealing of the automated counting machines (ACMs) at the Cotabato City Institute in Cotabato City.

Garcia reminded registered voters in the region to shade the ovals on the ballot instead of putting an X so the ACMs could read their ballots.

“To the voters, do not mark the oval with an X. The requirement is to shade the oval at least 25 percent (threshold). It is okay if the shading extends slightly beyond the circle,” he said.

“Also, do not just put a dot; your eyes might see it, but the machine might not. That is why shading is better. Please do not use an X; we need to shade it (oval).”

3,704 TODA at JODA drivers sa Gen. Trias tumanggapng ₱2,000 ayuda

GENERAL TRIAS CITY, Cavite — Tumanggap ng tig-₱2,000 ayuda ang 3,704 drivers mula sa mga Tricycle Operators and Drivers’ Associations (TODA) at Jeepney Operators and Drivers’ Associations

Nagpasalamat si General Trias City Mayor Jon Jon Ferrer kina Gov.

Abeng Remulla at Vice Gov. Ram Revilla Bautista sa pagtugon ng pamahalaang panlalawigan sa pangangailangan ng mga driver sa lungsod, partikular sa gitna ng patuloy na pagtaas ng presyo ng produktong petrolyo.

Ayon sa pamahalaang panlalawigan, malaking tulong ang tig-₱2,000 na ayuda sa mga benepisaryo, lalo na’t muling tumaas nang humigit-kumulang ₱5 kada litro ang presyo ng gasolina at diesel.

Sa pamamagitan ng programang Arangkada, layunin ng pamahalaang panlalawigan na makapagbigay ng agarang suporta sa mga sektor ng transportasyon na direktang naapektuhan ng pagtaas ng presyo ng langis.

Nagpasalamat din ang mga lokal na opisyal at mga benepisaryo sa mabilis na pagtugon nina Remulla at Bautista sa pangangailangan ng mgatsupersa General Trias.

Inaasahang makatutulong ang ayuda upang kahit paano ay maibsan ang dagdag na gastusin ng mga driver sa kanilang araw-araw na pamamasada.

INDANG, Cavite (PIA) — More than saving funds for student-centered programs, Cavite State University (CVSU) is shifting towards clean energy sources to supports the country’s push towards renewable energy.

Last September 7, Cvsu commissioned its campus-wide Rooftop Photovoltaic (PV) System Program for its main campus and 13 branches across the province.

Commissioned under a Public-Private Partnership (PPP) with PhilKo 18

Group of Companies, Inc. and the Office of the Presidential Adviser for Poverty Alleviation (OPAPA), the Rooftop PV system is part of country’s initiative to expand the use of alternative energy sources in government institutions.

Driven by the Marcos administration’s thrust towards renewable energy sources, Secretary Larry Gadon noted that the initiative forms part of the OPAPA’s solarization efforts, which aims to reduce electricity
