Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle delivers his homily during Mass at the Parish of the Holy Sacrifice in Diliman, Quezon City on Aug. 19, 2026. SCREEN GRAB/ DIOCESE OF CUBAO/ Source: CBCP News

Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle on Wednesday urged parents and grandparents to nurture their children with compassion, saying families must strengthen human connection in the wake of a deadly school shooting in southern Philippines.

Speaking during Mass at the Parish Church of the Holy Sacrifice at the University of the Philippines Diliman, he asked what could drive a child to commit such violence and called on families to reflect on how values are formed at home.

"For grandparents and parents, please show children a heart that is humane," Tagle said in his homily to mark the feast of St. John Eudes.

His appeal came a day after a high school student at Ateneo de Zamboanga University shot and killed a fellow student before killing himself,

Senate OKs stronger safeguards for anti-hospital detention law

MANILA – With 18 affirmative votes, no negative vote and one abstention, the Senate on Monday approved a measure strengthening protection for patients and their families against being kept in hospitals over unpaid medical bills.

Senate Bill No. 1511, or the proposed Enhanced Anti-Hospital Detention Act, expands the protection under Republic Act No. 9439 to relatives, representatives, caregivers and newborn babies, and strengthens rules requiring the release of deceased patients despite unpaid obligations.

Principal author and sponsor Sen. Risa Hontiveros said the measure rests on the principle that unpaid medical debt should never cost patients their liberty.

"Hindi dapat maging bilangguan ang ospital dahil lamang walang pambayad ang pasyente (A hospital should not become a 'prison' simply because a patient cannot pay)," Hontiveros said in a statement.

She clarified that the bill does not erase legitimate hospital debts, as financially incapable patients may still be required to execute a promissory note or avail of other mechanisms for settling their obligations.

"Ang utang ay maaaring singilin. Pero ang dignidad at kalayaan ng tao ay hindi maaaring gawing collateral (A debt may be collected, but a person's dignity and freedom cannot be made collateral)," she said.

Sen. Erwin Tulfo said cases of patients seeking help because they could not leave hospitals over unpaid bills continue to reach his office, with some mothers even forced to leave their newborns behind.

"Ito pong hospital detention na tila hino-hostage po, ika nga, mga pasyente (This hospital detention is like holding patients hostage)," Tulfo said.

Sen. Joel Villanueva, a co-author, highlighted provisions requiring greater transparency in hospital charges so families can better prepare for medical expenses.

"Marami sa ating mga kababayan ang nabibigla at nao-overwhelm sa laki ng kanilang hospital bills (Many of our countrymen are shocked and overwhelmed by the hefty hospital bills)," Villanueva said.

Sen. Mark Villar said existing law has not completely stopped reports of patients, relatives and even human remains being held because of unpaid hospital bills.

"Our fellow Filipinos should not be subjected to this inhumane and humiliating practice," Villar said.

Sen. Christopher Lawrence "Bong" Go likewise noted that keeping patients confined can worsen their financial burden because hospital charges continue accumulating for every additional day they remain in the facility.

"This has to stop or sana po'y mabigyan po ito ng solusyon (hopefully we can finally provide a solution)," Go said.

Under the bill, financially incapable patients who are medically ready for discharge may leave after executing a promissory note, while qualified indigent patients may use sufficient guarantee letters from the Department of Health or Department of Social Welfare and Development instead.

The measure also raises penalties against responsible hospital officers or employees from PHP100,000 to PHP300,000 or imprisonment of up to two years and four months. Hospital directors or officers who implement an established policy of illegal detention could face fines of PHP500,000 to PHP1 million and imprisonment of four to six years.

authorities said.

It was the second fatal school shooting in the Philippines in about two months, following a June attack in Tacloban City that also killed students.

Tagle warned that families can be physically together but emotionally distant when attention is fixed on phones instead of each other.

"But if at your dinner table, all of you — husband and wife and children — are looking at your cellphones instead of at one another, then nothing, (missing word here?)" he said.

He also cautioned against letting video games and artificial intelligence shape children's thinking and behavior, saying technology cannot replace human guidance.

"AI has no heart, games have no heart. Only human beings have hearts," he added.

Tagle did not directly blame technology for the Zamboanga shooting but used the tragedy to raise broader questions about how children are raised.

The pro-prefect of the Vatican's Dicastery for Evangelization called on families to examine what "heart" guides their words and actions, and urged Catholics to stay close to the heart of Jesus so Christ's love reaches the poor and struggling.

"Before we speak, before we act, let us ask: What kind of heart is urging me to do this?" he said.

Mag-ingat sa mga manloloko

Sadyang kayhirap mabuhay sa kasalukuyan, batbat ng problema, hadlang, pagsubok, balakid at mga kawalan ng kinakailangang mahalagang bagay. Subalit kung wala naman ng mga ito, wala raw kakuwenta- kuwenta ang buhay. Walang "thrill" sabi nga.

Bunga ng kahirapang dinaranas, may mga taong nakaka- isip gumawa ng masama upang magkamal ng salapi sa araw ang paraan, upang matustusan ang mga pangangailangan.

Mayaman man o mahirap, bumabagsak ang moralidad at nawawala ang delikadesa. Ang mayaman, gusto pang lalong yumaman. Ang mahirap, nawawalan ng pag-asa at kahit sa patalim ay kumakapit.

Sa panahon ngayon, samot-sari ang problema ng tao. Bagyo, ulan, baha, pagguho ng lupa, taas ng halaga ng lahat ng bilihin.

Ang mahirap, tiis- tiis lang. Ang mayaman na gustong lalong yumaman, naghahanap ng paraan para lalong bumukal ng salapi.

Ang modernong teknolohiya at mga gadgets, sa halip na sa kabutihan at pag-unlad gamitin, sa masama pa ginagamit.

Nauso nga ang SCAM, at dumami ang scammers. Nanloloko sa Tao sa pamamagitan ng Online gadgets.

Sana naman, makapag-isip sila. AT, BABALA SA PUBLIKO: HUWAG MAGING BIKTIMA. HUWAG BASTA MANINIWALA. MAG-INGAT SA MGA NAGLIPANANG MANLOLOKO NA GAMIT CELLPHONE.

Ipagbigay- alam agad sa mga kinauukulan. Ang kahirapan ay hindi pases sa paggawa ng kasamaan.

Hindi natutulog ang Diyos. Magdasal at humingi ng tulong. Sa Diyos, walang imposible. Sa Diyos sigurado tayo.

on track to meet its P1.3-trillion infrastructure spending target this year despite a five-month slide in public works disbursements.

"This highlights the need for stricter scrutiny of government infrastructure spending. The Senate will continue to uphold the transparency and accountability measures we embedded in the budget," said Gatchalian, who, as former chair of the Senate Committee on Finance, spearheaded landmark budget reforms to strengthen fiscal transparency and accountability.

DBM data showed infrastructure spending declined by 42.9% to P269.4 billion from January to May, compared with P471.5 billion in the same period last year due to stricter review of infrastructure projects.

"Infrastructure spending is a key driver of economic growth and job creation. We will ensure that public works funds translate into real economic gains, free from the leakages that have plagued past projects," he added.

Neon Fun Run 2026, Isinagawa sa Cavite City

Isinagawa sa Cavite City nitong Agosto 22 ang Neon Fun Run 2026, isang aktibidad na naglalayong hikayatin ang mga kabataan na maging aktibo, malusog, at masigla.

Pinangunahan ang programa ng City Government of Cavite sa pangunguna nina Mayor Denver Chua at Vice Mayor Raleigh Rusit, kasama ang mga miyembro ng Sangguniang Panlungsod at mga kinatawan ng SK Federation Cavite City sa pangunguna ni Konsehal Zul Gilera.

Lumahok sa fun run ang mga kabataan na umikot sa iba't ibang bahagi ng Cavite City, mula Montano Oval patungong PN at pabalik, bilang bahagi ng aktibidad na nagtataguyod ng malusog at aktibong pamumuhay.

Layunin ng Neon Fun Run 2026 na mahikayat ang kabataan na pangalagaan ang kanilang kalusugan at pangangatawan, gayundin ang magkaroon ng positibong aktibidad na makatutulong sa paghubog sa kanila bilang malalakas at aktibong mamamayan sa hinaharap.

Cavite City Mayor Denver Chua

DILG to ask Congress to tighten gun law...from p6 owners. Nanawagan tayo sa Congress na baguhin na at i-repeal na ang batas at gawing non-bailable offense ang krimen ng loose firearms," he added.

Citing initial reports from the PNP, Remulla said Ateneo de Zamboanga has 25 security guards on 24-hour duty shifts, with 15 deployed during the day and 10 in the evening.

Under long-standing security protocols, security guards check the bags of students entering the school on foot, while students riding in vehicles are allowed to enter the school premises without undergoing the same checks.

"I am filled with compassion for everyone, not only for the parents of the students shot but also for Ateneo. Walang kasalanan ang school at ang security guards; ang sistema ng security ang kailangang i-review," Remulla said.

Dispelling misinformation surrounding the incident, Remulla said the suspect was a Grade 9 top 1 student, had no history of bullying, and was not reported to have undergone shooting training. He was a Roblox player who livestreamed on a site from a first-person shooter point of view (POV) as he carried out the crime in a span of just three minutes.

Reported victims included a Grade 10 student who died and two other students who were injured, while several students experienced panic attacks, anxiety, and minor injuries during the incident. The suspect shot himself and died after the incident.

"Once again, it involves students. Once again, it involves firearms. Once again, we are confronted with the question of what more we can do as a country," Remulla added.

The DILG chief underscored the need to reinforce gun-safety training and ensure that responsible firearm ownership does not end with obtaining a license. He said the government's responsibility is ultimately to protect the public and preserve the social contract that keeps communities safe.

Meanwhile, PNP Chief Jose Melencio Nartatez Jr. said responding police officers recovered two short firearms: a Glock 22 caliber 40 registered under the Bureau of Customs and a Glock 9mm pistol with inserted magazines.

Also recovered at the crime scene were one Roni conversion kit, empty bullets, one mobile phone, and one black headgear.

PNP data further revealed that a total of 50 school-related incidents involving minors were reported from June 16 to August 18, 2026 alone. Of these, four were stabbing incidents, two were shootings, four involved illegal possession of firearms, 12 were shooting threats, 26 were bomb threats, and two were death threats.

"All gun owners, whether private or public, should have punitive damages when somebody else uses his or her gun. Dapat may accessory penalty siya," Remulla said.

"Kailangan natin ng whole-of-nation approach, kailangan magtulungan ang PNP (Philippine National Police), Congress, at mga gun
