BACOR CITY, Cavite (PIA) – The city government of Bacoor, Cavite and the Land Transportation Office (LTO) signed a memorandum of agreement for the implementation of a pioneer interconnectivity system outside of Metro Manila.

The LTO-LGU Interconnectivity Program or the Single Ticketing System, plays a vital role in enforcing traffic laws, where real-time data from the LTO's database is now accessible through the handheld devices used by Bacoor's traffic enforcers.

Under the agreement, Bacoor's traffic aids can now issue On-the-Spot Traffic Violation Receipts (OVRs) that will be directly linked to the motorist's record with the LTO.

The integration ensures that demerit points are promptly assigned to the driver's license subsequently after committing a traffic violation.

According to LTO guidelines, drivers who have accumulated demerit points or traffic violation records are no longer eligible for the 10-year validity of driver's license and could face suspension or revocation depending on the severity and frequency of violation.

DOH braces for rise in dengue, typhoid cases amid dry season

CALAMBA CITY, Laguna (PIA) – The Department of Health Center for Health Development (DOH-CHD) in Calabarzon has warned the public about the health risks posed by the warm climate brought by the El Niño phenomenon and the onset of the dry or summer season.

DOH Assistant Secretary and DOH-CHD IV-A Regional Director Ariel Valencia said proactive precautions must be taken with the rise of illnesses caused by the El Niño phenomenon.

"The El Niño phenomenon greatly impacts public health, especially this summer season. We need to be proactive and take the necessary precautions with the rise of illnesses and diseases," Valencia reminds the public.

The assistant secretary said that diarrhea, sunburn, asthma, fatigue, heat stroke, heat cramps, and exhaustion are some of the common illnesses contracted during the hot weather.

With the unpredictable weather caused by the El Niño phenomenon, Regional Disaster Risk Reduction and Management in Health (RDRRM-H) Officer-in-Charge, Joel Melchor Francisco, has warned the public about the possible rise of dengue cases due to the increased humidity and rainfall.

"These diseases are most likely to spread because of the high temperatures and increased presence of stagnant water, creating breeding conditions for disease-carrying mosquitoes and bacteria," Francisco added.

Cholera, typhoid fever, and even vector-borne diseases such as dengue are also widespread during this season, prompting DOH to remind everyone to maintain good hygiene, drink an adequate amount of water, and use better food preparation and handling to prevent the spread of the illnesses.

The health department assured that they are committed to helping the community prepare for potential health issues that the El Niño phenomenon may cause.

Through its Health Education and Promotions Unit, DOH CHD IV-A has been keeping the public informed on the safety precautions to avoid various water-borne diseases and other illnesses caused by extreme weather through their various information, education, and communication materials.

In a separate press conference, the CALABARZON Regional Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council (RDRRMC) said that it has been installing Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) facilities and monitoring health facilities to ensure an ample supply of clean water. It calls for dismantling biases that prevent women from participating meaningfully in all spheres of life.

On the other hand, the slogan "Kakayahan ng Kababaihan, Patutunayan" (Women's abilities, we'll prove), further underscores that women have immense untapped potential waiting to be recognized. villa together with Vice Mayor Rowena Bautista-Mendiola and other city officials signed the agreement on behalf of Bacoor, while Assistant Secretary Atty. Vigor D. Mendiza II – Regional Director Atty. Noreen Bernadette San Luis-Lutey represented LTO.

Asec. Mendiza delivered the message on behalf of Transportation Secretary Jaime Bautista, where the secretary noted that the digitization of government processes is in line with the mandate of President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr., under the Bagong Pilipinas brand of governance.

"The Department of Transportation, through the Land Transportation Office, intends to streamline traffic violations and fines throughout the country by institutionalizing this system. This is also a part of President Ferdinand Marcos Jr.'s program of digitalizing government systems and processes to establish better interconnectivity among agencies," the statement reads.

LTO believes that the single-ticket system will bring convenience and improve compliance for motorists, and will lessen the corrupt practices of some traffic enforcers.

"We can see that the single-ticketing system will bear many benefits, not just for the local governments but for motorists as well. In this way, we can fight corruption and the wrongdoings of motorists who test our traffic enforcers, and the traffic enforcers who don't have integrity," Mendiza added.

Meanwhile, Revilla said that the program will expedite the process of delivery services to motorists in the city and will establish a more efficient system for paying fines and other traffic-related transactions which promotes transparency and efficiency.

"The LTO-LGU Interconnectivity program not only streamlines the ticketing process but also introduces a more accessible approach for violators to pay fines online, thereby reducing the inconvenience of physical transactions," the local chief executive said.

Once implemented, the DOTr and LTO said that the local single-ticketing system of Bacoor may become the model of observation for the future implementation of the same traffic system to other cities and municipalities nationwide. (RF/PIA-Cavite; with reports from Bacoor City Information Office) implement CDBRPs, depending on available resources and the number of clients they accept.

The health department, however, sets guidelines to which LGUs must adhere to have an effective CDBRP, such as adequate promotion of anti-drug use; and establishing prevention guidelines by having a health service provider and screening tools for drug screening tests.

DOH also requires setting up treatment centers, forming a referral system between local governments and health service providers that will conduct drug dependence examinations, and having functional recovery clinics, psycho-social and spiritual services, and specialty service providers.

According to the latest DOH IV-A data dated Feb. 20, 2024, only 31 LGUs remain uncertified in the region. The majority are from the province of Quezon with 15 uncertified CDRPs, 10 from Batangas, and 3 in Laguna and Rizal, respectively. They target certifying all CDRPs by the end of March.

Malubag assured that they will continue to assist barangays in the region to attain a drug-cleared and drug-free declaration within their communities.

"Validation and certification are required for all applicants in the government's drug clearing program. [Our] training on screening, providing interventions, and referral to treatment will continue for the validation of barangays to be declared drug-free," she explained.

The DOH said that the drug-clearing program in the Calabarzon region will be further intensified through the promotion of a campaign for a drug-free workplace, disseminating information for advocacy and policies, providing technical assistance, and distributing drug test kits to local government units. Strengthening research, culture, important for youth, says professor

Getting the youth involved in research and culture presents them with opportunities to enrich their personal development and prepare them to become active members of society.

Technology University of the Philippines (TUP) professor Victor James Escolano, has emphasized the importance of the youth's participation in examining historical events and cultural heritage and contributing to contemporary knowledge and understanding.

"I believe that there is a great potential for young people to participate, through research, in looking at what has happened in the past so that we can contribute to the new knowledge we face," Escolano said in an interview with Philippine Information Agency's Usapang PIA program.

Acknowledging its profound impact on individuals, communities, and the society as a whole, Escolano has called for a holistic approach to intensifying research and culture.

"It [strengthening research and culture] should be a holistic process, and not exclusive in the academe. It serves as our guide and compass as to what direction we want to take. If we want to progress, of course we have to think of our culture. If we want to be progressive, we have to go back to our culture because it will serve as our road and direction for the future,"

Escolano cited the efforts being done by Biñan City, his hometown, in reviving and strengthening their culture by conducting research-based preservation projects with the support of the city government.

"In Biñan, our [city] government is producing projects that are being revitalized and elevating the standard of our culture," he said.

Over the years, Biñan City has achieved a balance between economic growth and embracing its unique heritage and history. Projects and initiatives, including the Balik-Biñan Project, the creation of the city's 10-Year Tourism Development Plan, and the Biñan City Cultural Inventory and Mapping Project were intended for heritage conservation and tourism planning.

"Almost all developing cities are moving towards modernization. Biñan is different-- we are moving backward, We are returning to the abundant history and culture of Biñan, and we want to show that we were like that before and that we cannot forget it," Mayor Arman Dimaguila said in a separate interview.

Meanwhile, Escolano emphasized that strengthening culture and research also contributes to the vitality and resilience of cultural communities and societies. It is essential to invest in initiatives that empower youth to explore, preserve, and innovate within their cultural

"When it comes to research, we do it to contribute knowledge. And when we contribute knowledge, we need to look at what is the past and the culture that we have because we can use it to intensify the contribution in the society." he said.

He added: " We [the] young people are still the ones who should promote this. Rather than viewing it as a school requirement, let us look at how we can provide a new blend, new knowledge, and new things that we can share with the next generation."(AM/PIA 4A)
